Jay McMahon

Candidate
Massachusetts Attorney General

I am running for Attorney General of the Commonwealth because we can do so much better here in Massachusetts than the incumbent, left-wing political activist who is now occupying the office. At no time in the history of our state have we had an Attorney General who has been such an ideological extremist, who would actually ignore Public Safety, and trample the most basic Civil Rights of the citizens of the Commonwealth for mere political expediency!

I will stop the 35 frivolous and meritless lawsuits filed against the Trump administration by this Attorney General, and I will instead concentrate on the public corruption in Massachusetts and make sure that indictments are handed down. I have been a trial lawyer since 1988, with thousands of cases in the Massachusetts court system, the same place where the Attorney General's widespread office operates.

With your support, I intend to fight for the right to represent our citizens in the Court of the Commonwealth. I will uphold the Constitution of the United States and the laws there under. We need someone who understands the Constitution, and who has been dealing with it for over 30 years.

When you are considering which candidate you want as your next Attorney General, and I am asking you to please look at my experience, look at what we bring to the table, and look at who has the best handle on the issues we face today:

Tackling the Opioid Crisis, cleaning up Corruption, protecting your Public Safety, maintaining your individual Civil Rights, and doing all the things that you would've demanded that a normal and rational state Attorney General should do.

I will tackle all those problems on your behalf, and make you proud of me and proud of this Constitutional Office. Thank you for your consideration and please visit my website to learn more at: www.attorneyjaymcmahon.com.

Steve Tougas

Candidate
State Representative
Mass. 3rd Norfolk

I'm running for several reasons:

1. There would be no choice come this November if I didn't run, just like there was no choice two years ago when no one ran against my current state rep.; so, seeing none, I stepped up to serve the people.

2. My current state rep. virtually votes with the speaker of the House every time. You can't represent your district when you are a rubber stamp for another state representative.

3. My current state rep. has voted to increase your taxes time and time again, including a 40% pay raise for state officials and the Legislature that has nearly tripled his own salary.

4. My current state rep. doesn't understand, or doesn't want to understand, economics. A recent example is his vote for the $15/hour minimum wage just passed into law. Economic principle and recent history have both shown that those states with a high minimum wage have also experienced much higher inflation and unemployment, as costs are passed along to the consumer and entry level jobs dry up. No wonder why the Massachusetts Fiscal Alliance gives him a score of 0%.

5. My current state rep. has voted to undermine religion and morality time and time again. A recent example is his vote for the elimination of overtime pay for Sundays and holidays, just passed into law. I know of one character who would have applauded taking away support of those who wish to attend church and celebrate Christmas: Scrooge.

6. Collected thousands of signatures to end The Forever Gas Tax (and other initiatives), saving the state $billions. Started a state ballot initiative to End Tolling on all highways to stop their proliferation across the state (17-09).

Learn more about Steve at his website: www.stevetougas.com.

p.s. If you live in the district, please vote for me. I also appreciate your support, even if it's just prayer. Thank you and God Bless! :-)

Ron Beaty

Candidate
State Representative
Mass. 5th Barnstable

I am a 57-year-old, native-born Cape Codder, who has been married for nearly 25 years to my wonderful wife, Chanda.

I have over 20 years experience in real estate management, and am a licensed real estate broker. As for education, I have earned a Master of Science Degree in Administrative Studies from Boston College, as well as a Master of Education Degree from Lesley University.

In 2016 I won election as a Barnstable County Commissioner representing 215,000 residents of Cape Cod. In 2014 I was the Republican nominee for Cape & Islands state senator. I am a long-time regional community activist on issues related to county government, the Cape Cod Commission, regional wastewater problems, the county budget, county restructuring proposals, and much more. Additionally, I have been a local and regional government watchdog and open meeting law advocate.

I am a conservative, staunchly pro-Trump and a pro-life candidate who is running for this office because time and again my incumbent opponent has clearly shown himself to be a liberal Democrat masquerading as a Republican. Enough is enough!

Boston Broadside Highlights Over $700 Million in FY2018 Budget Amendment Spending on Questionable, Unnecessary and Superfluous items, Driving Up the Cost of Government to All Massachusetts Taxpayers

by Ted Tripp
Sr. Political Reporter

In this final Part 13 of our analysis of the 1210 House amendments to the FY2018 budget, we have detailed how the elected members of the Massachusetts House show little regard to controlling spending and treat money as if it comes from some unknown source without an economic reckoning.

The year-long spotlight series by the Broadside shows a system that operates on the principle: "You vote for my gazebo and I'll vote for your gazebo." In other words, in their club they all stick together and all spending gets approved no matter how ridiculous or outrageous the request might be. We even pointed out a budget amendment request by Rep. Colleen Garry of Dracut of "not less than $25,000 to construct a Gazebo in Dracut." It was, of course, approved without debate and by voice vote.

If you are new to our paper, the questionable or unnecessary amendments noted here and in previous installments fall mainly into two categories. First is money on projects to favor relations within a representative's district. This could be for a local parade or celebration, something for the senior center, a police station carport, a new water main, fixing up a park, help for the town's "economic development," and so forth. A favorite seems to be new radios or communication equipment for the police and/or fire departments. All of these things, of course, should logically be funded by the city or town within the rep's district. But, hey, if you can get somebody else to pay for it like the state, while helping your reelection effort, why not go for it? Particularly if you ...

I kept all my campaign promises to hold the line on taxes. By exposing misallocations within the Water Department I've successfully fought to lower the water rates. In determining that residents were being overcharged for trash removal I voted to lower the trash fee. I have been tested and tried standing up for my constituents and standing up to the business-as-usual crowd. I'll do the same as State Representative. I'm running to reform Beacon Hill, just as I have led the charge to reform Stoneham town government.

To lower the tax burden, I'll support rolling the sales and income tax back to 5%, and I will vote against raising or creating any new taxes. I have signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge. State government needs to take less of our money, and whatever money they take, they must manage it better and not waste it.

I will always vote against Massachusetts becoming a Sanctuary State. We must support all law enforcement at the local, state, and federal level to uphold all laws. If we do not uphold all of our immigration laws, it will put all of us in potential danger where undocumented criminals are left to roam our streets and threaten the safety of our families and neighborhoods.

I have served my community for more than two decades working in the emergency room dept. at the Goddard Memorial Hospital.

I volunteered for 15 years as an EMT and firefighter for the Halifax Fire Dept. and as an instructor at the Mass. Maritime Academy for CPR and first aid, also a member of the National Safety Council.

I have been a leader in our community and a public servant since 2003 (after the death of my son) as I was elected to the Bridgewater Board of Health.

In 2010 I was elected a Plymouth County Commissioner as well as to the Bridgewater Town Council, on a recall for a sitting councilor. Since a county commissioner, I started a program to clean up our waterways, help towns save for future liabilities, and helped not only Bridgewater but Plymouth County to get on a strong financial footing. I am a mother of three, a business owner and an entrepreneur. I am currently and actively working on opening a home for veterans being released from prison to help them with skills and training to enable them to enter back into society.

Honoree & Keynote Speaker Mark Steyn

Introducing him at the United States Senate in 2015, Ted Cruz called Mark Steyn "an international bestselling author, a Top Five jazz recording artist, and a leading Canadian human rights activist". All of which happens to be true.

Steyn's human rights campaign to restore free speech to Canada led to the repeal by Parliament of the notorious "Section 13" hate-speech law, a battle he recounts in his book Lights Out: Islam, Free Speech And The Twilight Of The West.

Mark wrote about Israel. "The Jewish state is a great success story. The modern Middle East is the misbegotten progeny of the British and French colonial map makers of 1922. All the nation states in that neck of the woods date back a mere 60 or 70 years – Iraq to the Thirties, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon and Israel to the Forties. The only difference is that Israel has made a go of it. Would I rather there were more countries like Israel, or more like Syria? Israel is the only liberal democracy in the Middle East (Iraq may yet prove a second), and its Arab citizens enjoy more rights than they would living under any of the kleptocrat kings and psychotic dictators who otherwise infest the region."

Mark is the author of the following:

1. After America, which was a Top Five bestseller in the United States and a Number One bestseller in Canada
2. America Alone: The End Of The World As We Know It, a New York Times bestseller in the United States and a Number One bestseller in Canada
3. The [Un]documented Mark Steyn, his most recent bestseller
4. Lights Out - Islam, free speech and the twilight of the west

Emet Award Recipient Andrea Levin

Executive Director and President of CAMERA - Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting in America

Andrea Levin took over the leadership of CAMERA in 1991. Under Ms. Levin's leadership CAMERA's membership grew within a few years from 1000 to over 20,000, and now numbers over 65,000. In addition to the Boston headquarters the organization also has offices in Washington, DC, New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, and Israel.

Over the years CAMERA has focused major efforts on improving coverage of Israel and the Middle East by such major outlets as the New York Times, the Boston Globe, the Los Angeles Times, NPR, PBS, and ABC News.

While there have been major successes with most of these outlets, there is also a continuing need for monitoring and interaction.

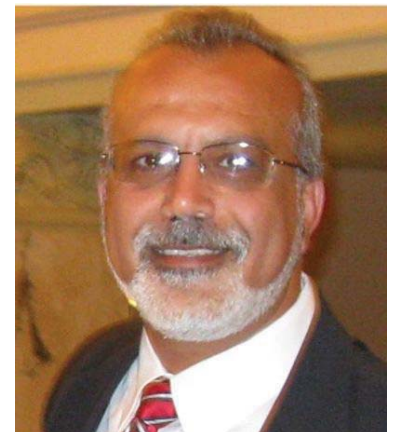

Emet Award Recipient Ray Hanna

President of Christians and Jews United for Israel

Ray Hanna came to America in the late 1960s from Cairo, Egypt, with his family. As Coptic Christians, they were a minority in Egypt where Sharia law is written into the constitution, and where Islam rules. Their only hope of freedom of religion and escaping religious persecution was to come to America.

Ray knows how precious Freedom is. He cherishes his Freedom. He has never, ever taken, for granted, his right to vote.

Ray leads one of the most important organizations in New England in the fight against anti-Semitism, the BDS movement, and the vitriolic narrative that is rising on university campuses all over the USA.

Kevin Quinn, R.I.P. - Liberal Judge Has Blood on His Hands for Marine's Death

From the end of his full-printed column:

The political and media class are determined to defend judicial tyranny at all costs. But there is one thing citizens can do: vote. Gov. Charlie Baker is a Democrat posing as a Republican. He has done nothing—not even a scintilla—to challenge, never mind roll back the state's liberal establishment. He has meekly criticized bad judges, such as Timothy Feeley. Yet, Baker will not even call for Feeley's impeachment. Just as he will not demand McGuire be removed from the bench.

Conservatives—and decent people across the Commonwealth—need to form a serious, viable political resistance. It's time to let Baker know that his treacherous RINO ways are no longer acceptable. We need to send a message. We need to vote against him in the GOP gubernatorial primary on Sept. 4. Whatever your feelings about Scott Lively—love him or hate him—a vote against Baker will shake the decrepit Republican establishment to its very foundations. Only when conservatives capture the state GOP can any kind of vocal, principled and real opposition emerge. And then the radical liberal judiciary can be finally put on public trial. The issue of reckless activist judges—and what to do about them—can be put to the voters. Sadly, until then, many more brave, decent and innocent people will have to die.

Kevin Quinn and his family deserved better. We all do. ♦

New Report: On Beacon Hill in 2017

Representative Jim Lyons

Best Defended the Principles of a Free Society: Life, Liberty and Property

by Ted Tripp

Sr. Political Reporter

The American Conservative Union (ACU) recently released its 2017 ratings for state legislators in all 50 states. The section on Massachusetts (<http://tinyurl.com/y7gz2gpv>) is 18 pages long and evaluated the state's 40 senators on 13 votes and the 160 House members on 16 votes.

The ACU selected the votes based on a member's adherence to conservative principles. The votes focused on "Ronald Reagan's philosophy of the three-legged stool: 1) fiscal and economic: taxes, budgets, regulation, spending, healthcare, and property; 2) social and cultural: 2nd amendment, religion, life, welfare, and education; and 3) government integrity: voting, individual liberty, privacy, and transparency."

The ACU says: "This wide range of issues are designed to give citizens an accurate assessment that conveys which of Massachusetts's elected leaders best defend the principles of a free society: Life, Liberty and Property."

Award for Conservative Excellence

On the summary page of what the ACU calls 2017 Winners and Losers, there is only one name under "90-100% Award for Conservative Excellence." That name is Representative Jim Lyons

Representative Jim Lyons

(R-Andover). No other members from the House and none from the Senate achieved a rating of 90% or better.

Congratulations to Representative Lyons!

Award for Conservative Achievement

In the category of "80-89% Award for Conservative Achievement," one senator and nine representatives made the list. These were Senator Ryan Fattman (R-Webster), Rep. Jay Barrows (R-Mansfield), Rep. Donald Berthiaume (R-Spencer), Rep. Nicholas Boldyga (R-Southwick), Rep. David DeCoste (R-Norwell), Rep. Geoff Diehl (R-Whitman), Rep. Shawn Dooley (R-Norfolk), Rep. Bradley Jones (R-N. Reading), Rep. Hannah Kane (R-Shrewsbury), and Rep. Keiko Orrall (R-Lakeville).

Congratulations to them as well.

In a category which the ACU calls "<=10% Coalition of the Radical Left," there are many, many names, this being Massachusetts.

Dear Massachusetts Voters:

I am running for Attorney General of the Commonwealth because we can do so much better than the left-wing political activist who is now occupying the office. At no time in the history of our state have we had such a liberal incumbent who has been an ideological extremist, who would ignore Public Safety, and trample the most basic Civil Rights of our citizens for mere political expediency.

We need someone who understands and respects our Founding Documents, and who has been dealing with the law for over 30 years as a trial lawyer and small businessman.

When you are considering which candidate you want as your next state Attorney General, I am asking you to please look at my experience, look at my passion I bring to the office, and look at who has the best handle on the important issues we face today.

Tackling the Opioid Crisis, fighting Corruption, protecting your Public Safety and saving your individual Civil Rights. Instead of this agenda, Maura Healey has made the AG's office overly political to benefit her future political career - at your expense.

I will will make you proud of me and proud of this independent, Constitutional Office. I ask for your support and VOTE on Tuesday, September 4th in the Massachusetts Republican Primary.

Thank you,

Jay McMahon

MassResistance*Pro-Family Activism that Makes a Difference!

Are you tired of being afraid to complain about the radical LGBT agenda and the Planned Parenthood abortion agenda at your children's school and in your community?

Are you tired of being pushed around and intimidated by self-righteous liberals?

Are you tired of helplessly watching "conservative" state reps and state senators who bend their principles in order to "get along" with their moderate colleagues and the liberal media?

Are you tired of being lectured by "pro-family" leaders that you have to be "polite" and "moderate" and definitely "non-confrontational" – even though that never works?

THEN WE ARE HERE FOR YOU!

We help you and your fellow citizens confront and stop the radical agendas and the people pushing them in your local schools, your workplace, churches, and the State House. And we help you tell the truth – which the radical Left can't stand!
